INTRODUCTION

Our first complete year as Rowland Hall-St. Mark's School has been a year of change. Each school gave up many of its old traditions and practices. In return, we, the students, and the faculty have created new traditions and practices to fit our growing and expanding ideas. Just as the two schools have merged, so have the students into one unified student body. The merger has made many improvements, both academically and socially. And so, RHSM students are ever looking upward and onward, never backward. We, the yearbook staff, have tried to present a true and vivid picture of this past year—from daily classes to assemblies to sports to Chapel and to all aspects of student life. And so to you, the students and faculty of Rowland Hall-St. Mark's, we present the Hallmark '65 with our thanks for a great year.

This a year of change
Our last book of memories
This our offering

DEDICATION

The Reverend Francis L. Winder

The Reverend Francis L. Winder holds the high esteem of the entire school community. Chaplain, friend, sponsor, teacher, advisor—Father Pete worked to make Rowland Hall-St. Mark's first year the best one possible. Believing strongly in student participation in government, he was the faculty advisor to the Student Council and the Evaluation Committee on the Constitution and a member of the Senate. Father Pete is a popular man on campus. He is sought after as both a friend and teacher. So to you, Father Pete, with long over-due thanks, we dedicate the Hallmark '65.

Our able leaders—
The strength of experience.
Their task is vital.

ADMINISTRATION FACULTY AND STAFF

MRS. CORR

Mrs. Corr, as the principal of the new Rowland Hall-St. Mark's, is responsible for the effective management of all parts of the school. Despite the many new problems and challenges which the "first" year is bringing, Mrs. Corr still finds time to consider each student as an individual. She is a counselor to those who are in need of friendship and advice. Her understanding of student problems merits great respect. Mrs. Corr, through her good judgment and fair understanding, has tied the school—kindergarten through high school, boy and girl alike—into one unified body.

BISHOP WATSON

The Board of Trustees and the President of the Board, Bishop Watson, have the final word in matters concerning fund-raising and finances. In their sobering position of authority, the Board must consider and approve all school policies. They represent the parents of the students and all who have placed their faith in this school. Through their efforts, Rowland Hall-St. Mark's school will continue to be a hallmark of excellence.

MRS. McMANUS

As head of the Lower School, Mrs. McManus draws upon eight years of experience earned teaching at Rowland Hall. Under her expert guidance, our first through sixth graders are led to their first steps in learning. Mrs. McManus' duties are not limited to the Lower School, however. Her reading room is an ever-popular hideaway for high school students. In her dual role, Mrs. McManus helps all of the Rowland Hall-St. Mark's students see the school as a united whole.

MR. PURDY

Mr. Purdy, as academic dean of Rowland Hall-St. Mark's, manages our academic program. He keeps class schedules running smoothly despite the unexpected. Mr. Purdy counsels and directs students in electing various classes. He is a boon to Seniors and Juniors in college counseling. Through his wisdom, understanding, and good judgment, Mr. Purdy is keeping our academic program, the most important part of our life at Rowland Hall-St. Mark's, a sound one.

THE FACULTY

The members of the faculty have played a very important part in the development of our new school. The teachers have quickly accustomed themselves to different classrooms and shared laboratories. Student-teacher relationships have grown stronger throughout the school year. The Rowland Hall-St. Mark's faculty is a constant source of encouragement, inspiration, and pride to every student.

FRESHMEN

The Freshmen form the first rung of the "high school" ladder. Their knowledge and understanding of themselves and of others are forming a basis for their continuing education and a solid beginning step for our ladder. The Freshmen class is helping the development and growth of the new Rowland Hall-St. Marks. This help will continue as they climb the ladder's rungs, and as they prepare for future leadership.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomores have reached the second stage of their climb and are eagerly looking forward to the third rung. The tenth graders are active leaders and participants in the high school community. Their participation in student government is proving invaluable. Their high spirits have carried the entire school through low times. Their continuing development will make them fit for full leadership and responsibility in the years to come.

THE SENIOR CLASS

SENIORS

The Class of 1965 forms the top and final rung of the high school ladder. They are looking forward with great anticipation to the next few years, yet they are already looking wistfully back on their high school career. Their outstanding leadership has given the new Rowland Hall-St. Mark's a firm basis for succeeding classes. Their development is preparing them to take an active part in life outside the school.

PREFECTS

Holding the highest elective offices under the new Constitution, the Prefects serve in an executive and legislative capacity. On a rotational basis, the four Prefects serve as Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Student Council.

STUDENT COUNCIL AND FORUM

The Student Council is the main branch of the student government. It is composed of the four Prefects, six student representatives, the Junior Class Student Council Representative, the four class presidents, two representatives from the 7th and 8th grades, and the Boys' and Girls' Association Presidents. The group participated in an overnight workshop at Brighton and has presented several assemblies to the student body. The Forum, composed of the four Prefects and all club presidents, meets monthly and schedules the next month's activities.

SENATE

The Senate is the executive branch of the student government. It creates a direct liaison between the students, faculty, and administration. It is composed of the Headmistress, the Chaplain, the Director of Studies, a member of the faculty, and the four Prefects. The Senate must approve all Student Council legislation so that it becomes official. This year, the Senate has proven very beneficial because it has increased the understanding between the students and the faculty and administration.

GIRLS' BOARDING DEPARTMENT

The fun-loving spirit of the thirty-four girls who make Rowland Hall their "home away from home" is a keynote of the girls' boarding department. The divisions of classes and home-rooms seem to melt away in the sharing of thoughts and experiences. A closeness develops that makes each girl a sister and a friend. The House Council works with Aunt Henri to create harmony in the building. In this vestige of the "old school" traditions, such as the Christmas Dinner Party and the Senior Serenade are lovingly carried on.

The House Council meets with Aunt and Henri and Cindy in the library for their weekly meeting. Members are: Rae Roberts, president; Charlotte Salisbury, Junior Representative; Terrie Homer, Sophomore Representative; Helen Hay, Freshman Representative. In absentia: Karen Ryan, Senior Representative.

BOYS' BOARDING DEPARTMENT

Pioneers in the boys' boarding department gather on the porch with House Master, Mr. Redelinghuys. Boy boarders are: Pat Christ (Rock Springs, Wyoming); Steve Wilhite (Brigham City); Rick Sailer (Bacchus Village); Chuck Swanson (Roy); Hank Wilhite (Brigham); Tom Bullen (New York, New York.)

The six boys of St. Mark's Hall claim to be "the only true St. Mark's boys left." Their pride is justified by their willingness to deal with problems that have occurred during the first year of the boys' boarding department. The boys rely upon the senior proctors to assist Mr. Redelinghuys in running the house. They are proud and happy to be forming traditions as meaningful and enjoyable as those of the girls' boarding department.

THE LION

THE LION, our school newspaper, is published by a group of student journalists under the sponsorship of Mrs. Zimmerman. The staff reports on current events at Rowland Hall-St. Mark's School and frequent editorials extend our thinking into matters of serious concern. The photographs, articles, and comic items make THE LION a publication that is eagerly welcomed by the students.

HALLMARK

The students on the HALLMARK staff have had a hard but rewarding task this year producing the first yearbook of the combined Rowland Hall-St. Mark's School. The many hours spent on layout, copy, photography, art, and selling advertisements have given staff members a close insight into our school and its students and faculty. Working on the HALLMARK has also provided first-hand experience in publishing techniques, working with others, and meeting responsibilities which should be valuable preparation for adult life.

We hope that this yearbook, reflecting both the academic and social aspects of our school, will present a true picture of the new Rowland Hall-St. Mark's School.

RHO HOTA- SIGMA MU

The Rowland Hall-St. Mark's chapter of the National Honor Society eagerly welcomed new members on both regular and probationary status. Those who were invited to join last year were filled with pride when they received their pins in May. The high standards of admission are carefully retained each year. For this reason, the school and its students can note with pride the size of our branch of the NHS.

Seated: Kathy Waldo, Vicki Stevenson, Rae Roberts, Sue Hazeltine. Standing: Elies Yeates, Robert Mallinckrodt, Kandy Kimball, Sandy Felt, Andy Tujios.

UNITED NATIONS CLUB

The United Nations Club is designed to stimulate interest in peoples of other countries and to give its members a wider perspective of world affairs. Approximately thirty students attended the Model U.N. Assembly held on April 2-3 representing Portugal, Sweden, Iceland, and Monaco. The members of each delegation spent months studying their assigned countries and the United Nations. Their months of preparations culminated in the two days of committee meetings, Security Council Meetings, and the General Assembly Meetings held at the University in which all four delegations took an active part.

The Swedish Delegation: seated: Marcy Tepper, Leslie Lewis, Kathy Waldo. Standing: Steve Amoss, Carolyn Carey, Andy Tujious, Rick Stevenson, John Volkman, Pat Christ, Mark Jones.

The Icelandic Delegation: Elies Yeates, Warren Owens, Carlye Kimball.

The Moroccan Delegation: Roxanne Christensen, Jane Harrison, Jon Sweet, Ann Buchman, Jane Wintersteen, Kathy Biele.

The Executive Committee: Mr. Redelinghuys, advisor; Kathy Waldo, John Volkman, Sandy Felt, Rae Roberts, Pat Christ.

Mr. Lyle Redelinghuys, U.N. Club Advisor.

Des etudiants avances ont presente une comedie pour Moliere a une assemblie. Ceci a aide a augmenter leur connaissance et leur comprehension de la langue et des coutumes francaises.

The French Club has contributed to the activities of the school through their sponsorship of a Mardi Gras. The colorful costumes and gay atmosphere insured a good time for all. Some of the advanced students presented at an assembly a comedy by Moliere. This helped to increase their knowledge and understanding of the French language and customs.

EL CLUB DE ESPANOL

El club de espanol no esta constituido solamente como un medio de estudio, sino para que por medio de algunas actividades como Peliculas y comidas, cada estudiante de este asignatura adquiera un major entendimiento de la gente de habla castellana en el mundo.

The Spanish club is organized both as a medium and a promoter of such activities as movies and dinners. Through participation in club activities, each members gains a better understanding of the Spanish speaking peoples of the world.

CIRCULUS LATINUS

Omnis latinitas dividitur in tres partes: nominum declinationes, verborum declinationes et perturbationem.

All Latin is divided into three parts: conjugations, declensions and confusion.

LETTERMAN'S CLUB

The Rowland Hall-St Mark's lettermen contributed to our school spirit this year by selling tickets for the bus trip for the "away" games. The club also managed the school pound. Occasional sales of lost and found items increased the club funds.

WELFARE COMMITTEE

The Welfare Committee works within the school to coordinate and plan our welfare projects. This year, as in the past, we participated in the "Sub for Santa" program. Food, clothing, and toys were collected at school and taken to our family over the holidays. The boys and girls on the committee this year worked hard to make the "Sub for Santa" a success.

All is quiet, yet
There is communication
Within our chapel.

CHAPEL

THE CRUCIFERS

The highest honor in the school is the position of crucifer, shared by a girl and a boy. They are responsible for rotating the acolytes and for seeing that chapel services run smoothly as well as standing as figureheads for our school. The crucifiers for the year 1964-65, Kandy Kimball and Hank Wilhite, have ably handled their responsibilities and added a great deal to the spiritual life of the school.

Six seniors and six juniors were appointed acolytes for the year 1964-65 by Bishop Watson last spring. The acolytes are responsible for serving at daily chapel services, Friday Communion, and at all special services. They also rotate the responsibility of carrying the Bishop's crozier at the Friday chaples. The twelve acolytes are: Sandy Felt, Jeanne Ann Igo, Vicki Stevenson, Steve Amoss, Mark Jones, and John Volkman as senior acolytes; Neena Diumenti, Sue Hazeltine, Rae Roberts, Marv Jones, Rick Stevenson, and Andy Tujious as junior acolytes.

ACOLYTES

ALTAR AND CHAPEL GUILDS

The Altar and Chapel Guilds are responsible for the cleanliness of the chapel and its preparation for all services. Guided by its officers, President, Sandy Felt; Vice-President, Karen Lewis; Secretary, Kandy Kimball; and Treasurer, Marjorie Wheeler, the Altar Guild-Chapel Guild has taken an active role in the life of the school.

THE CHOIR

The choir is composed of 43 high school students who sing daily during the Chapel service and add a great deal to the life of the school. This year they prepared special anthems and a lovely Candle and Carol Service. On Maunday Thursday, they sang the Fourth Communion Service, and with members of the Cathedral Choir, they presented Gilbert and Sullivan's "Trial by Jury."

Time out from studies
To act, to sing, and to dance
Complete our school life.

BAZAAR

The annual school bazaar was held on Saturday, October 3. A carnival atmosphere prevailed among the booths where homemade candy, books, Christmas cards, engraved mugs, and school sweatshirts were sold by class volunteers. Mexican food was served by the sophomores to those attending the fete, while the seniors sponsored a cakewalk. Hot dogs, cold drinks, and popsicles were sold by the seventh and eighth graders. Many games and stunts (including a dunking machine), provided the remainder of the day's entertainment.

SKITS

Skits were presented on the afternoon of November 7. Students in grades 7 through 12 performed witty sketches of school life and unrelated gaiety. The Seniors' skit, presented in musical form, took first prize and gave them possession of the victory banner.

ASSEMBLIES

Many interesting and informative assemblies have been presented this year under the direction of the Assembly Committee. Mrs. Miller (Chairman), Mrs. Bradley, Father Winder, and Mrs. Easterling planned several assemblies on careers. A program on "Youth and Morality" was presented and the Senior Class brought in the Bellshantymen in an excellent educational assembly. At times the assembly periods have been used to discuss our student government. The weekly assembly period has certainly been a valuable asset to our school.

The second annual all-school play, Dumbbell People in a Barbell World by Dan Blue, was presented on Friday and Saturday, November 13th and 14th at the Salt Lake Public Library Theater. The RH-SM cast was the first high school group to perform the three act play. Students in the cast include Sandy Felt, Pat Christ, Rick Stevenson, Rae Roberts, Chuck Swanson, Hank Cannon, Rik Sailer, Sherry Mc Neiles, Andy Tujious, Leslie Lewis, Jane Harrison, Ingrid Stalheim, Suzanne Meyers and Nancy Roux. Mr. Larimer directed the play, Mr. Fox designed the imaginative sets and twenty eight students worked on crews to make the show the success that it was.

ALL SCHOOL PLAY

SENIOR PLAY

Somehow surviving hectic schedules and endless rehearsals the seniors presented two performances of John Vari and Rodney Ackland's Farewell, Farwell, Eugene on the 23rd and 24th of April. The play was produced at the Veterans Administration Hospital theater.

The annual senior play was directed by Mr. Emmet Larimer, with Sandy Felt as student director. Mr. George Fox designed the sets. All seniors were involved in some part of the production. The play was centered about a pair of elderly sisters portrayed by Ingrid Stalheim and Barbara Losses. Vicki Stevenson played their cousin and Jeb Myers played her boyfriend. Kathy Waldo, Stephen Amoss, and Nancy Roux portrayed the upstairs neighbors and John Volkman and Kandy Kimball played the adoption agents.

JUNIOR PROM

The Social highlight of the year was the Junior Prom where couples danced to soft music in an atmosphere of "classic" beauty. The artfully designed theme was Grecian Holiday. Many months of anticipation were satisfied as the evening advanced: a night not to be forgotten.

From the initial boarding of the bus to their return to Salt Lake City, once again the senior trip to San Francisco was electrifying. From February 19th to the 27th the 17 girls accompanied by Mrs. Corr, Mrs. Robertson, and Miss Oss spent their time visiting the exciting art shows, plays, and symphony, and special San Francisco attractions such as Chinatown, the Wharf, Sausalito, Seal Rock, fashion centers and the picturesque sidewalk flower stands. Also included in the itinerary were the campuses of Stanford U., Mills College, and the University of California (Berkeley). Grace Cathedral, Muir Woods, and Beringer Bros. winery will not be forgotten. Primarily an educational trip, the seniors found it richly rewarding in addition thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

WINTER PROGRAM

This winter all students in grades seven through twelve were released early on Wednesdays in order to participate in a sports program. Skiers boarded their buses for Brighton at 12:00 while ice skaters, bowlers, and fencers began their activities at 1:30. The reaction of the students was enthusiastic and all agreed that the program was a success.
